"BEHIND THE LIGHTS AND THE APPLAUSE, IT ISN'T ALL LAUGHS, AND MILTON BERLE HAS HAD THE COURAGE TO FACE IT AND TELL IT. THIS IS THE GUTSIEST BOOK I'VE READ IN YEARS. IT'S DYNAMITE!" —Frank Sinatra

Milton Berle

An Autobiography with Haskel Frankel

WITH 50 YEARS OF PHOTOS

He was five when he first appeared on stage. At twelve, he was seduced by a chorus girl, the first of a long list of women who included Aimee Semple McPherson, Marilyn Monroe, Joyce Mathews and a famous Hollywood actress by whom he fathered an illegitimate child. In this shockingly candid autobiography, he strips away all pretenses to reveal the very human man behind the jokester's mask. This time Milton Berle is not after the sound of laughter but the ring of truth.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

JAY WALKER—president of the Ivy League Monopoly Association, the largest organization of its kind in the U.S.—is an undergraduate student at Cornell University. Jay first learned to play Monopoly at the age of six. Since then, he has competed successfully in several intercollegiate and national tournaments, capping his career to date with the 1974 United States Easter Regional title. Jay is hailed by many experts as the “Bobby Fischer of the Monopoly world.”

JEFF LEHMAN—also an undergraduate student at Cornell—is the mathematics and computer science wizard who coordinated the research team which developed the famous Monopoly Information & Data Analysis System (MIDAS). An internationally respected Monopoly theorist, Jeff currently directs the Ivy League Real Estate Trading Game Association.

YOU DON'T TAKE A CHANCE
WITH THIS BOOK—
YOU ARE GIVEN ONE!

It is no secret that Monopoly is America's favorite game. What is secret are the ways that the experts win again and again and again. Now at last a book lets that secret out of the bag and puts it square on the board. If you think Monopoly is a game of chance, this is your chance to think again—and think to win.

The authors—two of this country's top players and tournament stars—will introduce you to playing possibilities and hidden loopholes in the rules that you never imagined. They will show you every legal but lethal trick from employing clear-cut mathematical certainties to gaining a vital edge through subtle, yet all-important psychological manipulations.

Read this book. Use the total arsenal of skills and stratagems it offers. And accomplish what every player sits down at the board to do—enjoy a monopoly on success!

With exclusive probability tables and players' horoscope.
